Thin and comfortable

Comfort is essential during the changes your body is undergoing. Neno Fina pads are designed with your comfort in mind – ultra-thin, discreet, and perfectly shaped to give you full freedom every day.

neno care series

High absorbency

Thanks to their structure and materials, Neno Fina pads effectively absorb moisture, preventing leaks. This way, you can feel confident all day long.

Five layers for complete protection

Each layer has a specific purpose. From the soft, skin-friendly nonwoven fabric to the absorbent core and breathable mesh surface that promotes proper air circulation.

Soft porous non-woven fabric that does not irritate the skin

Waterproof layer to prevent leakage

Top absorbent layer

Durable absorbent layer to absorb moisture and liquids

Microporous breathable PE film

Shaped to fit your body

The pads are designed to conform to your body and stay in place as you move. The ergonomic fit minimizes discomfort and lets you feel free.

Ideal for postpartum use

The first weeks after childbirth are a time when your body needs extra care and tenderness.

Neno Fina postpartum pads are designed to provide reliable protection, comfort, and support during your recovery.

With them, you can focus on what matters most – enjoying the closeness with your little one.
