Your body deserves the best care as it goes through so many changes. Neno Soffio's 425 mm long postpartum pads offer maximum protection even in the most demanding moments. Whether you are lying down, walking or sleeping, you can feel safe.

425 mm

Ultra-thin

Gentleness and effectiveness can go hand in hand, and you don't have to sacrifice comfort. The ultra-thin design means you can forget you have postpartum pads on.

neno care series

5 layers

Five layers that work for you – each with its own purpose. Softness for skin, absorbency for dryness, breathability for health. Together they form a shield that gives you protection at any time of day.

For urinary incontinence

As a certified medical device, postpartum pads are useful for incontinence. They've been designed to absorb large amounts of fluid. In addition, they are gentle on the skin and fit well, which significantly reduces the risk of leakage.
